Adecco appoints Dominik de Daniel as Group Chief Financial Officer

Chéserey, Switzerland – April 3, 2006: The Adecco Group, the worldwide leader in Human Resource services, announced today the appointment of Dominik de Daniel as Adecco Group's new Chief Financial Officer (CFO). De Daniel (30), who was formerly CFO at German-listed DIS Deutscher Industrie Service AG, will join Adecco with immediate effect.

Commenting on the new appointment, Klaus J. Jacobs, Chairman and CEO of Adecco, said: "We welcome the decision of DIS' Supervisory Board to support the appointment of Dominik de Daniel as CFO of Adecco, which is in line with our original plans". Adecco has recently acquired a majority stake in DIS AG by means of a public tender offer.

De Daniel held the CFO position at DIS AG since March 2002, and since February 2001 he was member of the Management Board responsible for Investor Relations, Strategic Controlling and M&A. Before joining DIS AG in May 2000, he was a senior analyst at Deutsche Bank covering the staffing sector.

De Daniel is a German national and will be based at Adecco's global headquarters in Zurich, Switzerland.

As Group CFO, de Daniel replaces Jim Fredholm, who remains in the Group as the global head of the Business Line Finance & Legal. Sven Pfeifer, formerly Finance Director of Adecco Germany, replaces Dominik de Daniel as CFO of DIS AG. Pfeifer's appointment has also been confirmed by DIS AG Supervisory Board.
